1. Regular website

1.1. Products

Here you can find all the information's about medin devices, applications, patient interfaces, consumables and fully integrated accessories.

1.2. Resources

This is the renamed download area. Here you will find all general product documents for our devices in all available languages. If you require more specific documents, you must register via our Partner-net. More on this later in this document.

1.3. E-Catalog

As usual, you can find our product catalog here. You can either filter by consumables, accessories or devices or search directly by product number or name.

1.4. Academy

In our new academy you can watch all our product videos sorted by device for training or information purposes. You can also contact us here if you need personalized training. We not only offer on-site training, but since Corona also online training.

1.5. About us

In this familiar section you will find, as usual, some information about medin, our team and our goals. You will also find vacancies here.

1.6. News

All the latest news and dates can be found here. You can also go directly to our social media channels here.

1.7. Contact

In this section you can contact us at any time if you have any questions, suggestions or criticism for us. We are happy to take time for all your concerns and will deal with them promptly.

2. Partner-net

If you click on this icon, a window will open in which you can either log in directly to our Partner-net if you already have an account, or you can create and apply for an account directly here. If you already have an account but have forgotten your password, you can use the link to create or request a new password.

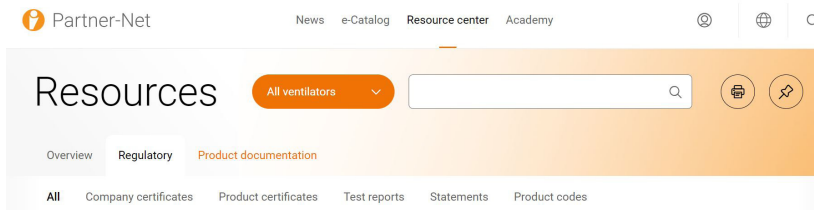

In our Partner-net you have more specific access to news, documents and training courses.

2.1. News

In our Partner-net news you will also find our newsletter archive in which all newsletters since January 2022 are listed. In the list of our events you will also find all the training courses we currently have planned.

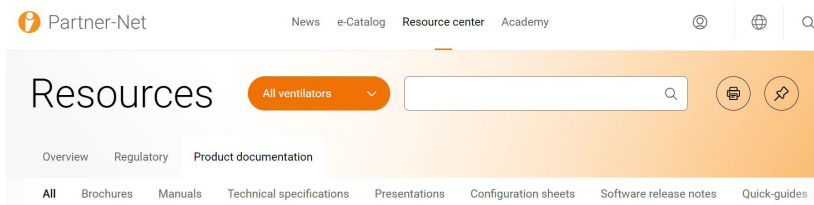

2.2. Resource center

The resource center in the Partner-net is extended by all regulatory and some product documents.

Under Regulatory we have some subfolders:

- Company certificates, here you can find all currently valid CE documents
- Product certificates, here you can find all currently valid declarations of conformity and system declarations
- Statements, here you can find some tender specifications

Further subfolders can be found under Product documentation:

- Configuration sheet, here you will find current product sheets that make it easy for you to assemble devices and accessories

We are constantly working on adding more content to make it easier for you to have access to documents for registration or product use.

2.3. Academy

As a distributor, you can find out about and register for open training courses here.
